Introduction

कर्म ज्यायो ह्यकर्मणः।

or

action is superior to inaction, the motto of our pride, College of Engineering Trivandrum manifest the higher vision of her founders to touch lives even through the smallest of actions whenever possible. Abiding by the dream, she has been improving lives ever since.

One more step towards this dream would be to inspire the beautiful minds of CET to start working on their magnum opus.

CET Maker Party

We all are artists dancing through the canvas of life. Artwork can be anything of artistic value like a painting, a poem, a building plan or even a software.

Conduct of an internal art and technology expo will help us in attaining the following objectives.

1. Bring to light the best out of CETians enabling them to appreciate the beauty of creating.
2. Solve real-life problems and challenges faced by the college, industries, society and the mankind as a whole.
3. Improve the quality of our students making them better engineers, ideators, and artists.
4. Scale our prestigious technical and cultural fests, Drishti and Dhvani.

CET Maker Party is conceptualized to be a bi-annual event happening during the starting of each academic year and during even semester whenever an amicable date is available. The date of next season is to be announced immediately after one season is completed. These will help us in attaining the following objectives.

1. Conduct of Expo by the start of an academic year will inspire the freshers to work on their ideas and will provide a warm, healthy and comfortable artistic environment.
2. Providing enough time for CETians to work on their artworks.
3. Giving artists a chance to exhibit their artwork during the next season if they are unable to complete their work in the planned/applied season.
4. Promote the culture of creating and building among students. Long-term benefits include innovations from students including successful start-ups.

CET Maker Party is conceptualized to be an event organized by the clubs of the college with support from the College Union (if officiated) and the college authorities.

CET Maker Party is conceptualized to invite, receive, and manage artworks through official web portal. Artworks data once registered won't be lost and will be accessible throughout the lifetime of the web portal. These will help us in attaining the following objectives.

1. Ease of application for the CETians to apply for the event from virtually anywhere in the world.
2. Ease of approval, and management of artworks by the administration of the event.
3. Enabling students to directly reference their works in their resumes or CVs.
